

Educational Interpreter Professional Development

2022-2023

APRIL OFFERINGS

- ▶ 1:1 Session with Deaf Mentor (1 hour)
- ▶ 1:1 Session with Interpreter Mentor (1 hour)
- ▶ Mock Interpreting Session with feedback (1.5 hours)
- ▶ Professional Development Lab:
- Tuesday, April 25th, 4-6pm
- ▶ Workshop #1: "Receptive Practices through Storytelling"
Presented by: Dennis Matthews, Jr. - TOD and Deaf Mentor
Tuesday, April 18th 5-7pm
(This workshop will be presented in ASL)
- ▶ Listening Series: "What Does it Mean?"
English to English translation 2-part Series
Thursday, April 20th 5:00-7:00pm &
Thursday, April 27th 5:00-7:00pm
Colleen Roy and Melissa Klindtworth
- ▶ Traveling PD Workshop:
Saturday, April 29th, 9am-3pm
Pasco High School Library - Pasco, WA
(This workshop will be presented in ASL)

CDHY invites all Washington PreK-12 Educational Interpreters to engage in the CDHY Educational Interpreter Mentor Program on Zoom!

This is an opportunity for educational interpreters of all skill levels to come and participate in language development, interpreter processing, discourse mapping, and techniques for evaluating our own work and personal development.

With our new format, we will be introducing new opportunities each month so be sure to check back!

For questions, please email
Melissa Klindtworth:
melissa.klindtworth@cdhy.wa.gov

Registration:
<https://forms.gle/c8JFRgXeBRougWSKA>

