

EDUCATIONAL INTERPRETER Hub

SEPTEMBER 2024

Upcoming Professional Development Opportunities

SELF DIRECTED PRACTICE- DISCOURSE MARKERS

September 16th, 5-7 PM on Zoom

Join Kaycee Watson as she models self-directed skill improvement activities that utilize Large Language Models (LLMs) like Chat GPT and Microsoft Copilot. In this workshop you'll learn about one or two activities you can do to improve your interpreting skills, and practice doing those activities in a group so that you can confidently continue your skill development on your own long after the workshop has ended.

MINI COHORT

October 1st - November 10th on Zoom

Presented by: Taralynn Petrites and Yael Herbstman

This will be a small group with a maximum of 7 interpreters who will receive both group and 1:1 mentoring during the 6 weeks. The mentors will help to focus on areas of need and create an environment of encouragement and growth.

INTERPRETING WITH DHH STUDENT'S DEVELOPMENTAL AND LANGUAGE MILESTONES IN MIND

Spokane - Saturday, October 5th, 9am-3pm

Ellensburg - Saturday, November 23rd, 9am-3pm

Federal Way - Saturday, December 14th, 9am-3pm

Julia Petersen, MA and Laura T Petersen, MA will present on developmental milestones, language deprivation, and Maslow's Hierarchy's implications for DHH students. Additionally, they will share their personal experiences of being hearing and deaf siblings and their journeys in strengthening their intersectional identities. The workshop will also provide an opportunity to strengthen your expansion skills through group activities.
